Mom Corps Named to 2011 Inc. 500|5000 with Three-Year Sales Growth of 176 Percent

ATLANTA, AUG. 25, 2011— Inc. announced the listing of Mom Corps (www.momcorps.com), a national industry leader in flexible employment, in its annual ranking of the 5,000 fastest-growing private companies in the country. The list offers a comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy – America’s independent-minded entrepreneurs. Taken as a whole, these companies represent positive growth in the U.S. economy having created 370,592 jobs in the last three years.

“This is our inaugural year on the Inc. 5000 list and we are thrilled with the accomplishment and honor,” said Allison O’Kelly, founder and CEO of Mom Corps. “Our business model of placing professionals in flexible work arrangements with organizations of a progressive mindset continues to gain momentum as the U.S. workforce shifts. Changing cultural and sociological attitudes are increasing the demand and necessity for workplace flexibility, and as a result, our franchise owners nationwide are experiencing substantial growth in their businesses.”

Mom Corps earned a ranking of 1,564 on the list posting a 176 percent increase in revenue from 2007 to 2010. Additionally, the firm is listed as 135th out of 593 in its industry segment of Business Products & Services, 56th out of 188 companies in Mom Corps’ headquarters city of Atlanta, and 61st out of the other 202 Georgia companies listed.

The 5,000 companies that made the list reported aggregate revenue of $366 billion. Complete results of the Inc. 500|5000, including company profiles and a list of the fastest-growing companies sorted by industry and region can be found at <http://www.inc.com/inc5000/welcome>.

About The Inc. 500|5000

The Inc. 500|5000 is a list of the fastest-growing private companies in the nation. The list debuted in 1981 as a ranking of the 100 fastest-growing private companies in the U.S. The following year, it expanded to the Inc. 500 and, in 2007, the Inc. 5000 was inaugurated. As an Inc. 5000 honoree, Mom Corps is ranked among some of the most successful private companies in America.
